Requirements for Artwork. . . . Please read carefully. . . . These are the requirements for ALL exhibitions

- Courtyard Gallery selection committee reviews work submitted to the Gallery in order to maintain standards of work and of display. Any major changes to product line require that you consult with members of the selection committee to see if re-jurying is required. If you are accepted to display and sell pottery, and then take up painting, please contact the selection committee to review your work.
- Work will be original in conception and execution. It is not acceptable to submit for sale work that has been completed in a workshop or with the assistance of an instructor. It is each member’s responsibility to ensure they are not in violation of copyright laws.
- Works must be signed, appropriately framed and with “D” rings and wire installed for hanging. Any unique artworks that require special care or have installation instructions must be clearly explained and labeled. Please hang wires about ¼ of the way from the top of the piece – lower wiring will create an unattractive hanging angle. Each work must be clearly and securely labeled on the back with the name of the artist, the title of the work, the media employed and price.
- Framing is not necessary, but edges need to be painted and finished neatly. Frames, if used, need to be dust and dent free.
- All cards must be in plastic jackets. Please label with title of the piece, your name and your own contact information, if you wish, and price.
- The Gallery does not carry insurance for artwork. Courtyard Gallery is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged artwork or merchandise.

- The Gallery pays the artists for the sale of their artwork on every calendar quarter unless other arrangements are made with the EDAC treasurer. Commission taken by the Gallery will be 20%.

Working members can help support the Gallery by assisting or taking on other responsibilities.
